TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

Guidelines for Application

Background:

Alumni Scholarship awards are funded for undergraduates students by the Alumni Endowed Scholarship Fund, the Earl and Esther Hiers Endowed Scholarship Fund and the Texas Wesleyan Alumni Association.

Purpose:

The Scholarships were established to award scholarship assistance to relatives of alumni to encourage them to attend and complete degrees at Wesleyan.

Alumni Association Scholarship Committee:

The Scholarship committee shall be comprised of members of the alumni board.

Guidelines & Process:

1. The scholarship committee will review completed scholarship applications that have been received by the deadline of January 31 and select those to be interviewed. Those selected will be notified of interview time and location.
2. Scholarship recipients must meet all normal admission requirements as outlined in the catalog and procedures of Texas Wesleyan University.
3. Scholarship recipients must be enrolled on a full-time basis (12 hours minimum) in order to be and remain eligible for the scholarship.
4. Scholarship recipients are required to maintain at least a 3.0 GPA in his/her coursework at Texas Wesleyan. Failure to maintain an overall GPA of 3.0 will result in suspension of the scholarship.
5. Recipients will be notified by April 15 followed by official award letters. Funds are distributed in equal halves for fall and spring semesters.
6. All recipients are required to reapply each year.

Acceptance of the Texas Wesleyan Alumni Association Scholarship requires agreement to requests from the association board of directors including the following:

- Written acceptance of the scholarship mailed following receipt of award letter from the Board.
- Written thank you to the source of the scholarship received.
- Attendance at the annual Spring Reunion Assembly for introduction to alumni.
