

Information & Communication Technology

RamLink On-Line

A new online application called RamLink is now operational. With RamLink, student grades are accessible online and students can locate their unofficial transcripts and course schedules.

In the near future users will be able to change addresses, add and drop classes, request official transcripts, apply for graduation and register and pay on-line.